Subject: ICOYC: eNEWS for May 2016 - Commodores' Forum Registration

May 2016

A Note from the Editor

Summer cruising season is starting for those of us who live in the Northern Hemisphere. Your Editor's trawler has left the boat yard with a much needed new water maker, a freshly scrubbed and painted bottom, and some new electronics ("Of course, you need some new toys." says the Admiral.) Loon Song departs Anacortes, Washington, in early June and heads 300 nautical miles north to the top of Vancouver Island in scenic British Columbia, Canada, to cruise in the "Broughtons" for about eight weeks, a wonderful place of deep glacial fjords, splashing waterfalls, lots of birds and bears and whales. Our annual summer voyage will be cut short this year because we need to return home in late August to pack up our "yacht club uniform" to head out to Copenhagen for the 2016 Commodores' Forum.

As a member of the Forum Advisory Committee, I have been fortunate to work with Cdr Lars Ive of the Kongelig Dansk Yachtklub/Royal Danish Yacht Club during the past several months and watched the forum program develop along with the exciting social program. Read more about the registration procedures below and remember what Cdr Ive says, "Sign up before June 1 and save some money."

See you in Copenhagen,
Bob Miller, Editor

President's Messages - A Successful AGM, Reminder for the Commodores' Forum, and We Have a New Leader

Successful Actions During the April Online AGM

Our Annual Meeting of Members in April was blessed by a hearty turnout of represented Member Clubs. Sincere thanks to those who joined the meeting online at 0600 or 2400, as the time zone challenges were engaged. Logged-in Members may see a record of all the reports and actions taken by the membership in Secretary Phil Smith's minutes in the Member Library at ICOYC.org. Among the activities were review and approval of the financial statements and the Financial Review Committee's report, amendment of the Bylaws, and election of Directors by the Membership, and election of officers by the Board. A full list of those who have volunteered to accept leadership responsibility is attached to the AGM minutes.

Remember to Register for the Commodores' Forum

I sincerely hope that your Club will assure representation at the Forum in Copenhagen this September! The program that has been designed by the Forum Advisory Committee and our hosts, the Royal Danish Yacht Club, promises significant value to those who participate. It appears that we have all survived the recent deep recession, and can now resume usual operations. However, to relax at this point would be folly, simply because it is the rebuilding of momentum and healthy condition that is the most difficult task. This Forum will be offering ideas and perspectives that each of our Clubs may find of real benefit in dealing with that challenge, but you must be present to get the full value, and return to your club with intelligence that will surely make the cost of participating seem minimal. It's just good business sense.

John McNeill Passes the Gavel to Andy Anderson Effective September 2016

At the recent AGM, I was very proud to report our excellent financial health and vigorous range of activities toward providing benefits for our Member Clubs AND the members. Of course, my pride lies in the wonderful support I've received as President from an excellent crew of Officers, Directors and notable volunteers. To me, this has been much like racing my boat, where the work of the crew is the only thing that keeps us moving forward. I was only steering the course we agreed on. In any case, the watch was getting a bit long, and I am delighted that Andy Anderson of the Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron has stepped up to lead us as President for the next leg or two. You'll hear more at Copenhagen, of course, and I know that you will, like me, be eager to continue our efforts with Andy at the helm.

Andy Anderson's Message to ICOYC

Sailing is our passion, the sea is forever in our sight. The reason to join with like-minded individuals and belong to yacht clubs builds on this love for the sport and the ocean. When we join together with clubs from around the world and share our stories it is powerful, relevant and provides knowledge for us to act. I'm incredibly excited about the tremendous opportunities ahead to help grow the sport through the recognition of the ICOYC around the globe and how we can play our small part.

It's a privilege indeed to represent ICOYC as President and to work with a first class board of directors, clubs, committee members and individuals. Together we can share and provide tangible benefits with even great optimism for the clubs. I'm very keen to hear your views about the issues facing our sport in your clubs. A key will be collaboration between individuals and clubs, so I welcome your participation to contribute to ICOYC. A great place to act on this is by registering early for the next Forum in September 2016 - act now!

On a final note, a very big thank you to John McNeill, our past president, for steering us through the last few years with enthusiasm, courage and convincing direction. I very much look forward to John's continued involvement and ceremonial handover at Copenhagen. His hard work and booming rally calls for support are heard, now we must all act.

Hope to meet many of you in Copenhagen at the Forum. It will be a blast!

Happy sailing,
Andy

To the Ice and Beyond - An Epic Solo Sailing of the Northwest Passage

Kiwi yachtsman and member of the Royal New Zealand Yacht Squadron, Graeme Kendall was the first person to sail the Northwest Passage solo non-stop. Sailing east to west, he knocked off the "Everest of sailing" in just 12 days - the fastest recorded - as part of his extraordinary solo circumnavigation of the globe. This is a story of determination, meticulous planning and rugged courage. All alone for 193 days in his purpose-built yacht Astral Express, Kendall crossed 28,000 miles of ocean, facing some of the Earth's most terrifying seas.
